For any person meeting all the Athlete Eligibility requirements specified herein who wishes to compete for the U.S. at the World Sailing Para Youth Sailing World Championship (“the Event”) to be held July 19-22, 2022, in Netherlands.

1. ELIGIBILITY

- Athletes must be US Citizens, or eligible permanent residents with written authorization from World Sailing for an exemption under World Sailing Regulation 24.5.4
- Athletes must hold a valid U.S. passport that will not expire for six months after the conclusion of the Event.
- All athletes shall be 25 years old or under on December 31st of the year of the Event.
- Minimal disability (MD) classification rating will apply to all athletes entered WS Classification Rules
- All athletes shall obtain a World Sailing Sailor ID by registering online at www.sailing.org/isafsailor.
- Athletes must attend for the entire duration of the Event, including prior event training.
- Athletes must be current US Sailing members in good standing
- Any additional eligibility requirements as specified in the NOR.

2. SELECTION

2.1. The following is the procedure to be used by the International Selection Committee (ISC) to select the Team to represent the U.S. at the World Sailing Para Youth Sailing World Championship.

The International Selection Committee (ISC) has asked Betsy Alison, as former Head Coach of US Paralympic team, to form an evaluation group comprised of members with integrity and Para sailing expertise to rank the applicants and make a selection recommendation to the ISC based on the criteria below:

Sailing is a sport that requires proficiency in a wide range of individual skills including physical, technical, and psychological elements. For a successful double-handed team, the skills of each athlete must combine to form an effective unit.

- Physical
 - Meet required disability criteria both as an individual and with teammate
 - Athlete combined height and weight will be considered to select the most competitive team
- Technical
 - Proficient in the boat handling and trim techniques (tacking, gybing, use of the gennaker, sail trim and balance) of a double-handed keelboat in a wide range of wind/wave conditions.
 - Has knowledge of the game situations, tactics, and rules.
- Experience
 - Resume of sailing experience required, double-handed experience is beneficial
 - Other sailboat racing experience welcome.
- Psychological/Social
 - Possesses appropriate attitude and demeanor to be a positive member of the team, including respect for the game, personal integrity, and a strong work ethic.

2.2. Applications must be submitted online by midnight Pacific Time on May 22nd of 2022. The application is available at: <https://www.ussailing.org/competition/adult-sailing/adaptive-racing/>

2.3 Individual or team applications will be accepted. If applying as an individual, the evaluation group will take into consideration who would pair well to form a team. It is not necessary to apply as a double-handed team.

3. REMOVAL OR WITHDRAWAL OF ATHLETES

3.1. Athletes (skipper and crew) who will be representing the USA at the Event may be removed by US Sailing for any of the following reasons:

3.1.1. Voluntary withdrawal. Athlete must submit a written letter to Betsy Alison at US Sailing (BetsyAlison@ussailing.org).

3.1.2. Violation of US Sailing's Code of Conduct ("Code of Conduct"). Any athlete found to have violated the Code of Conduct (Attachment 1) at any time from the publishing of this document through the completion of the Event may not be eligible to represent the USA at the Event. All decisions regarding an Athlete's violations of the Code of Conduct regarding an athlete's eligibility to compete at the Event will be made by US Sailing based on the procedures defined in the US Sailing Bylaws and Regulations.

4. REPLACEMENT OF ATHLETES

As permitted by World Sailing, a replacement athlete will be nominated from the pool of eligible athletes based on the criteria outlined in section 2 above and approved by the ISC.

5. DEVELOPMENT OF SELECTION PROCEDURES

The International Selection Committee (ISC) was responsible for creating these Selection Procedures.

5.1. Any member of the ISC or the evaluation group that has a possible conflict of interest must disclose it. If such conflict exists, the person must recuse him/herself from discussions and voting. Further, the person should not otherwise influence other members of the selection process. However, a person who has recused him/herself, but who has relevant and necessary information with respect to athlete performance (for example a national team coach) may, if requested by the committee, provide such information to the committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and the committee member who declared the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision.

6. ATHLETE OMBUDSMAN

Athletes who have questions regarding their opportunity to compete that are not answered by US Sailing may contact either of the following:

US Sailing Athlete Ombudsman, Bob Lane at rlane@hmallc.com

USOPC Athlete Ombudsman, Kacie Wallace at kacie@usathlete.org

Telephone | (719) 866-2299 Toll-free telephone | 1-(888) ATHLETE (1-888-284-5383)

- Shall be familiar with and follow the SafeSport rules, policies, and procedures adopted by the USOPC Center for SafeSport, as such rules may be amended from time to time;
- Shall successfully complete SafeSport training upon signing the Code of Conduct. Training is required every year, with a refresher course for those who have previously completed the SafeSport Training;
 - To complete the training: go to the SafeSport website.
 - Create an account (if not done so already) by entering Athlete's US Sailing member ID
 - Follow instructions for online training
- Shall complete a background check through the US Sailing provider upon signing the Code of Conduct and promptly complete this screening after receiving the e-mail prompt by Hire Image, the screening company retained by US Sailing;
- Shall not engage in any conduct that is criminal under any laws applicable to the athlete, including, but not limited to laws governing the possession and use of drugs and alcohol and providing of drugs to any person and of alcohol to minors;
- Is eligible to compete under the rules of World Sailing;
- Shall refrain from conduct detracting from athlete's ability or that of teammates to attain peak performance;
- Shall give careful consideration to the possibility of incurring injuries that would jeopardize the ability to compete in sailing events, prior to participating in potentially hazardous sports such as skiing, snowboarding, hang gliding, rock climbing, parachuting, base jumping, water skiing, wake boarding, etc.;
- Shall respect the property of others whether personal or public;
- Shall exercise good judgment and conduct themselves with honesty, integrity, and respect for team members, team coaches, staff members, other teams, supporters, spectators, and officials; shall refrain from biased or harassing behavior or verbal, physical or sexual abuse;
- Shall act in a way that will bring respect and honor to the Athlete, teammates, US Sailing, team supporters, the US Olympic Sailing Program, and the United States; and
- Shall remember at all times that s/he is an ambassador for the U.S. Olympic Development Program, US Sailing, the USA, and the Olympic and Paralympic Movement.

The Athlete acknowledges that failure to comply with any of these terms may result in forfeiture of the right to represent US Sailing and/or the USOPC at international events. US Sailing will follow all due process requirements of the US Sailing Regulations and Bylaws and the US Olympic and Paralympic Committee Bylaws, where applicable, before declaring an athlete ineligible to participate.
